FOUNDERS OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE:

Clive, Warren Hastings, Wellesley.

Vol. I.—LORD CLIVE.

8vo, price 20s., cloth, with a Portrait and Four Plans.

By Colonel G. B. MALLESON, C.S.I.

"A skilful summary of the best evidence on Clive's independent career, drawn up by one thoroughly acquainted with India, and experienced both as a soldier and a diplomatist. These advantages, added to a long literary apprenticeship and familiarity with modern thought, have led to a very complete account of Clive, his victories of peace no less than his triumphs in war."—Academy.

"The style is good; the descriptions of military manoeuvres are clear; and the character of the soldier and the statesman is drawn with discrimination and candour."—Saturday Review.

"It would not be possible to find in any other book a more faithful or vivid word-picture of the work accomplished by the great soldier and statesman, or of the manner in which he performed it."—Scotsman.

"How this splendid edifice of empire was built up, with blood and iron for the cement, forms a story which Englishmen should never tire of reading. Nor will many minds weary, we answer for it, over the graphic pages, full of life and fire, and vivid local colouring, in which the ablest of recent Indian historians tells the wondrous tale."—Globe.

London: W. H. ALLEN & Co., 13, Waterloo-place.

13, Great Marlborough-street.
HURST & BLACKETT'S

WITH the CONNAUGHT

RANGERS, IN QUARTERS, CAMP, and on LEAVE. By General E. H. MAXWELL, C.B., Author of "Griffin, Ahey!" 1 vol., demy 8vo, with Illustrations, 15s.

"General Maxwell has, in the course of his military career, seen much of the world, taken part in a considerable amount of fighting, and experienced many adventures. He writes in a genial fashion, and possesses evidently a great fund of animal spirits."—Athenaeum.

LODGE'S PEERAGE and BARONETAGE for 1883. Under the special Patronage of Her Majesty Corrected by the Nobility. Fifty-second Edition. 1 vol., with the Arms beautifully engraved, 31s. 6d., bound, gilt edges.

"This work is the most perfect and elaborate record of the living and recently deceased members of the peerage of the three kingdoms as it stands at this day. We are happy to bear testimony to the fact that scrupulous accuracy is a distinguishing feature of this book."—Times.

THE NEW NOVELS.

MRS. OLIPHANT'S NEW NOVEL.
SECOND EDITION, at all Libraries, in 3 vols.
IT WAS A LOVER and his LASS.

By MRS. OLIPHANT.
Author of "Mrs. Margaret Maitland," &c.

"In 'It was the Lover and his Lass' we admire Mrs. Oliphant exceedingly. Her story is a very pretty one. It would be worth reading a second time were it only for the sake of one ancient Scottish spinster, who is nearly the counterpart of the admirable Mrs. Margaret Maitland."—Times, February 8th.

"Had not Mrs. Oliphant obtained long ago a well-earned reputation, her last volumes would have secured her celebrity as one of the best writers of the distinctively Scottish novel. She has never more effectively set forth the characteristics of the old-fashioned Scottish gentlewoman than in the portraits of Margaret, Jean, and Lillias Murray. The accuracy of these sketches is in the author's most finished style."—Athenaeum.

There is much pleasant descriptive writing in Mrs. Oliphant's new novel, some excellently drawn characters, and a good plot. Several of the minor characters are firmly sketched."—St. James's Gazette.

BID ME DISCOURSE. By Mary

CECIL HAY, Author of "Old Myddleton's Money," &c. 3 vols.

SANGUELAC. By Percy Greg,

Author of "Ivy, Cousin and Bride," &c.

"Sanguelac" may be pronounced an interesting, and in parts extremely interesting, novel, uniting the power of sketching feminine character which Mr. Greg showed in "Ivy" with the faculty of depicting battle-scenes which he showed in "Errand."—Saturday Review.

"If there are any inclined to think that the American War is a worn-out theme, the perusal of 'Sanguelac' will convince them that it has once again afforded the material on which Mr. Percy Greg has woven a very engaging romance, which has the further merit of containing some food for thought. Once the war has begun, each page of the tale is fraught with stirring interest."—Morning Post.

FETTERED yet FREE. By Alice

KING, Author of "Queen of Hearts," &c. 3 vols.

"Novel-readers will find much to attract them in Miss King's new novel. The story is relieved by some graceful passages and some attractive characters."—John Bull.

"A powerful plot and one well-drawn character are the redeeming features of 'Fettered yet Free.'"—Academy.

A STORY of CARNIVAL. By MARY A. M. HOPFUS, Author of "Five-Chimney Farm," &c. 3 vols.

"Miss Hopfus has written a good story, which will raise her reputation as a novelist. The descriptive parts are very fresh and spirited, and the characters secure our interest at once; they are lifelike, full of vigour, and clothed in a dignity of their own."—Athenaeum.

HOMESPUN YARNS. By Edwin Collier, many years of the

"Essex Weekly News."

"Mr. Collier displays a dramatic power and a direct and simple force in narration that are remarkably akin to the native strength and naive charm of our older ballads. In those of his poems where he has freed himself from the beguiling influence of Barham and Hood, his work may fairly be compared with the best of Wordsworth's early 'Lyrical Ballads.' Such pieces as 'Bessie and I,' 'Not in the Programme,' 'Bodgy,' and 'A Rogue and a Vagabond' are instinct with dramatic art, and are told with unforced humour and genuine pathos."—Academy.

"A collection of rhymed stories, legends, and sketches. The antique ballads are pretty fair, and one or two of them merit a more honourable remark. In his modern sketches, however, Mr. Collier is seen at his best. His quaint pathos is excellent, and his descriptive power is of first-rate quality. 'Bodgy' is one of the typical stories that is sure to be a favourite with reciters."—York Herald.

weaving a more than usually complicated plot. This, united to the writer's style, always full of movement and brightness, will ensure a large circle of readers for her latest work."—Morning Post.

SPECTACLES: their Use and Abuse.

A pamphlet, by HENRY LAURANCE, F.R.S., Oculist Optician, should be read by all suffering from weak and defective vision; valuable and special instructions are given to those using and requiring spectacles. It shows how sight is seriously injured by the indiscriminate purchase of spectacles without regard to their proper adaptation, and traces mere cases of blindness and defective vision from this than any other cause. Sent post-free. Mr. HENRY LAURANCE, F.R.S., Oculist Optician, personally adapts his IMPROVED SPECTACLES at his residence, 3, Endelburgh-gardens, Euston-square, daily (Saturdays excepted), 10 to 4. Sir Julius Benedict writes, "I have tried the principal opticians in London without success; but your spectacles suit me admirably. The clearness of your glasses, as compared with others, is really surprising." Dr. Bird, Chelmsford, late Surgeon-Major W.E.M., writes—"I could not have believed it possible that my sight could have been so much improved and relieved at my age, 82. I can now read the smallest print, although suffering from cataract on the right eye." Similar testimonials from Ven. Archdeacon Palmer, Clifton; the Rev. Tidd Pratt, Brecknell, Berks; Rev. O. Thorpe, Peckham; Rev. Mother Abbess, Mill Hill, Hendon; Lt.-Gen. Macmillan, Brentwoods, &c., &c.
